"Basic First-Aid Training Workshop."

Event Summary

In a significant effort to prioritize safety and well-being, KPR Institute of Engineering and Technology's National Service Scheme (KPRIET-NSS) joined forces with ALERT-NGO Coimbatore to organize a highly successful "Basic First-Aid Training Workshop." The event witnessed an enthusiastic response from students and faculty who actively participated in gaining crucial life-saving skills.

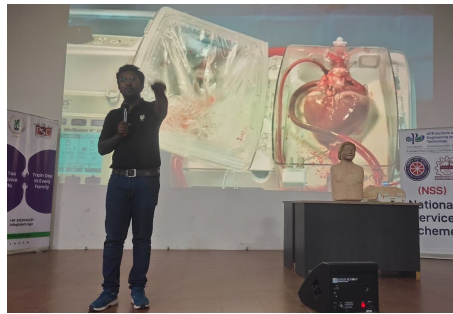

With a proactive approach towards ensuring preparedness and response readiness, KPRIET-NSS spearheaded the initiative to cultivate a secure and empowered community within their institution. By partnering with ALERT-NGO Coimbatore, a renowned organization renowned for its commitment to disseminating first-aid knowledge and skills. KPRIET-NSS effectively equipped participants with essential techniques for handling emergency situations.

The comprehensive Basic First-Aid Training Workshop covered an extensive range of vital topics, including Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR), management of choking incidents, wound care, fracture stabilization, and other critical first-aid procedures. Expert trainers provided valuable guidance, enabling attendees to gain hands-on experience in a supportive and nurturing environment.

Participants expressed their gratitude for the workshop's comprehensive curriculum and the expertise of the instructors. The event received overwhelmingly positive feedback, with students and faculty acknowledging the importance of acquiring these life-saving skills.

The Basic First-Aid Training Workshop served as a crucial step in creating a safer and more prepared environment for all members of the institution.

This collaborative effort between KPRIET-NSS and ALERT-NGO Coimbatore sets a commendable example for other educational institutions, emphasizing the significance of proactive safety measures and fostering a culture of preparedness. The success of the workshop underscores the commitment of both organizations to prioritize the well-being of their community.
