Event Summary

The KPRIET Film Club, in collaboration with Sangamam, recently organized an engaging debate for students on the topic of 'Old Movies vs. New Movies.' This thought-provoking discussion brought together film enthusiasts from various backgrounds to explore and debate the merits and drawbacks of both old and new movies. The debate provided a platform for students to express their opinions and engage in a healthy exchange of ideas regarding the evolution of cinema over the years. The Key points discussed during the debate was Artistic Value, Nostalgia vs. Innovation, Social and Cultural Context, Popularity and Box Office Success, Impact on the Industry. In the end, the debate concluded with the recognition that both old and new movies have their unique strengths and characteristics. It highlighted the importance of appreciating the diversity of cinematic art and recognizing that personal preferences play a significant role in shaping one's views on this topic. The KPRIET Film Club and Sangamam plan to host more such discussions and events in the future, fostering a deeper understanding of the world of cinema among students and enthusiasts. This debate provided a valuable opportunity for students to develop critical thinking and communication skills while also celebrating the rich history of film and its exciting future.
