KPR Institute of Engineering and Technology (KPRIET) is committed to embark on social welfare programs towards fulfilling its social responsibility

KPRIET undertakes to organize and support societal activities by students, employees, and other stakeholders through community outreach programs

KPRIET commits to strategize its social welfare programs to deliver the most impactful services in the neighboring community.

KPRIET shall,

Ø create awareness among its stakeholders on its social responsibilities

Ø inculcate social awareness, moral and ethical values, and environmentally responsible behavior amongst the community

Ø plan and execute awareness programs and societal activities that have a bearing on continuing education, skill development, career growth, economic development, women empowerment, sanitation and health, road safety, sustainable environmental practices, etc.

Ø organize activities focusing on youth, middle-age and old-age with relevant trainings and knowledge sharing programs

Ø coordinate with governmental and non-governmental organizations in delivering sustainable development programs

Ø participate in cultural activities of the communities and promote harmony among the public.

KPRIET requires all its students, employees, alumni, and stakeholders to support in delivering Institute social responsibility programs effectively.

The implementation of ISR policy is entrusted with a team consisting of faculty, staff and students. KPRIET management appoints a faculty advisor to lead and guide the team in its activities
